

Tery Lopez

Director of Diversity – Writers Guild of America

Tery Lopez is the Director of Diversity at the Writers Guild of America, West. Previously, she was conference director for the National Association of Latino Independent Producers (NALIP). Ms. Lopez began her career in the film industry as an assistant to producers, Moctesuma Esparza and Robert Katz (Selena, Gettysburg, Introducing Dorothy Dandridge). Later, she worked as part of Moctesuma Esparza's Maya Pictures development team, producing 13 episodes of the Sí TV comedy series, Circumsized Cinema.

Ms. Lopez also worked as post-production coordinator for the HBO film, Walkout, and was co-producer of the feature film Innocent Voices, which was Mexico's official entry into the 2005 Academy Awards. Tery has a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Telecommunications and Film.